

THE GAME

Concept: A chess game, whereby only pawns are used.

Number of Players: 4 (maximum)

Number of Judges: 1 (minimum)

Roles of a Judge:

- ✓ Draw out question from the Q&A deck & reads them to the player.
- ✓ Gives points accordingly as stated on the card.
- ✓ Table out the player's earning and/or dismissal of points.
- ✓ Make sure there're no miscellaneous happenings throughout the game.

How to Play:

- i. 4 players are placed at each side of the board.
- ii. 8 pawns are given to each players; i.e.: 32 pawns in total. (all 4 sets of pawns are physically different)
- iii. Players will roll dice to determine which player goes first, second and so on.
- iv. After all is set, the game starts with 3 rounds, whereby the level of questions assigned are to be randomly set and given by the judge.
- v. After the 3rd round (the 4th one), questions are given in order according to the *question level distribution.
- vi. Process is repeated.

Rules to follow

Pawn:

- Has a normal chess pawn move and ability. I.e.: moves vertically forward & diagonally to eat an opponent.
- In the first round, only pawns from position b-g is allowed to move.
- Able to eat King.
- Number of steps to be taken is dependent on the level of *difficulty of a question.
- No pawns can move backwards.

King:

- A king can only move if the player is able to answer a level 6 question.
- A king can only kill a pawn or another king at a time.
- A king can move in all directions.
- Luck & Chance Draw is not applicable on King.
- To be King, a pawn has to reach the direct opposite end line of his/her opponent.

THE CHALLENGE

*Question Level Distribution:

- 6 levels in total
- Difficulty of questions increases as the level increases.
- Level of difficulty affects the number of moves a player can make and the number of points awarded.

LEVEL	STEP/S
1,2,3	1
4,5	2
6	3

How to Win:

- Player has to have at least a King, and gets the highest points.

Points:

- Points awarded is dependent on the level of difficulty of the questions, promotion of pawn to King, and the last player who is still standing (20 points).

LEVEL	POINTS
1	1
2	2
3	3
4	4
5	5
6	6

Penalty:

- Points will not be given if question is answered wrongly.
- Skip turn if question answered wrongly.

THE FUN
